

I strongly object to Sinclair airing a provocative "documentary" so close to a national election, while other broadcasters are self-censoring so as NOT to impact their viewers during this crucial time (in adherence with national election law). 60 Minutes chose NOT to air a piece about the Niger/Yellowcake story, and networks made Moore re-edit the commercial for the DVD of Fahrenheit 911 to remove images of Bush golfing. The airwaves are public and I STRONGLY OBJECT TO THIS USE OF MY PROPERTY.
